ON THE WEB: Search engine protects kids

Monday, April 17, 2006

A new search engine protects children while they're on the Internet. RedZee.com filters out pornographic results while delivering relevant searches. RedZee.com offers fast, clean search results that are targeted correctly to what Web users are seeking.

Searches for pornographic related words pull up no results, thereby preventing access to any unwanted sites.

For updated quotes, send text message with STOCK TICKER (e.g. CPB) or FUND TICKER (e.g. AGTHX) to 44636 (4INFO)
